

MCBATTAS PACKAGING AND PRINTING RECEIVES 15 AWARDS IN FIVE-STATE PRINT COMPETITION

April 30, 2015 — McBattas Packaging and Printing with offices in Fairbury, Nebraska and Belleville, Kansas has received 14 awards for outstanding achievement in printing in the annual Star of Excellence Awards, a five-state printing competition hosted by the Printing Industry Midwest, the region's trade association for printing, communication and graphic arts industry.

Competing against entries from printing and graphic arts firms throughout the Midwest, McBattas received awards from best in class and best in division.

"We are very proud of our winning team," said Owner Fred Arnold. "It is an honor to be recognized by the industry as a company that produces top quality, award winning materials."

PIM President David Radziej agrees, "This was a close competition with a very impressive standard of entries. The judging process was very challenging. McBattas should be proud of the company's achievement and the excellent work done by employees."

The Star of Excellence Awards recognize those responsible for the creation and production of print communications in the Midwest. The competition promotes excellence in print communications and rewards companies and individuals who produce the best print media.
